1976 Highlander salutes '76 BICENTENNIAL

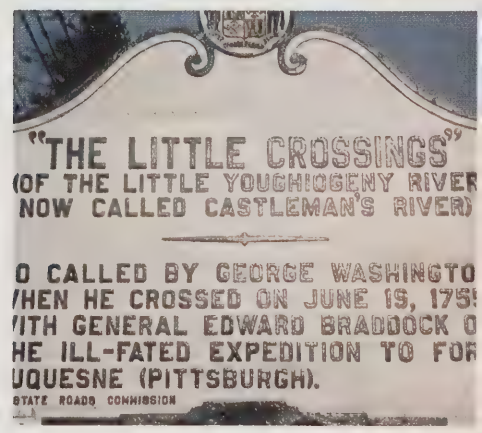

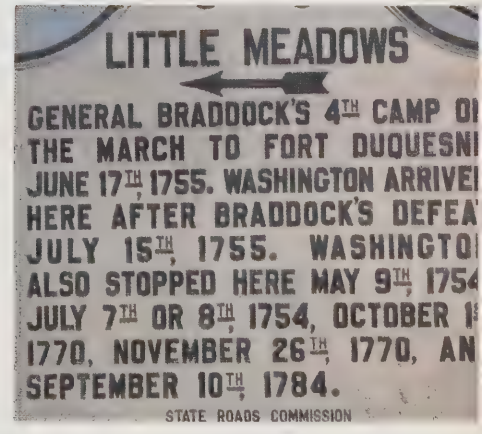

Our second national birthday is more symbolic than simply its birth and the passing of a two-hundred year period. This celebration also symbolizes achievement and growth, reminding us of the past that shapes our present, and gives hope for a productive future.

The Revolution was a political phenomenon, reaffirmation of values rather than mere protest.

America in the 1770's and 1780's was a nation of young people. Three-eighths of the signers of the Constitution of 1787 were in their twenties and thirties. We often pay tribute to the brilliance of this generation, but we overlook its youthfulness.

The Southern Highlander Marching Band

Has Made Many Trips This Year But the most memorable was the Indianapolis "500."

Departing from Southern at 6:30 a.m., they started their thirteen hour journey to Indianapolis. Along the way they had a major breakdown leaving them with three buses.

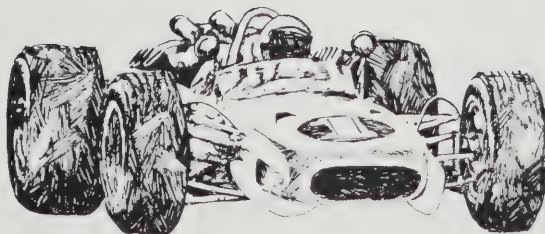

Arriving at the Indianapolis State Fair Grounds, the band settled into their dorms to prepare for the parade Saturday morning which was witnessed by millions of people on nation-wide television.

During the parade, the band marched on a checked carpet before the reviewing stand. No prizes were awarded but each student received two medallions.

Sunday morning bright and EARLY the band took off for the Motor Speedway. There they joined in a Parade of Bands to march around a 2½ mile track.

After that the band sat back and relaxed and enjoyed what they could see of the race.

Monday morning at 7:30 the band started their sleepy journey back home. Even though the weekend was full of surprises, band members were glad to get home.

1. Mr. Richard Clever is always looking for improvements. 2. Sr. Band practices for their big concert. 3. Tim DeWitt practices his award winning solo. 4. Drum Major, Steve Ritchie, directs the band at the new freeway opening. 5. Linda Booth marches proudly through the streets of Oakland. 6. Drama Performs Two Plays

The Jr. Class Presents

Tracy Bernard and Tammy Mason talk about Wilbur's bicycle.

Rodney Durst and Dwayne Boyce talk about ways of getting Wilbur his bicycle.

Ronnie Domenick and Clara Shockley talk about the strange guests at Maxwell's Boarding House.

Judy Custer and Kevin Hahn get ready to start training for "da big foight."

The Bank Robbers: Doug Green and Roslyn Rodeheaver.

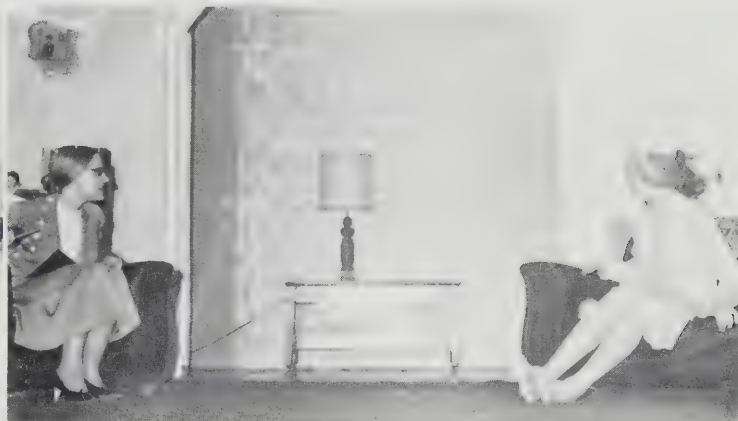

Jack Riley greets Tim Filemyr at 6:00 in the morning.

"The Boarding House Reach"

Tim Filemyr and Tammy Mason: "Oh darling, we'll go on a second honeymoon."

Kathy Sincell seems frightening to Rhonda Lewis.

On March 17-19, "The Boarding House Reach" was presented to the student body by the Jr. Class. It was a three act comedy.

The plot involves the Maxwells, a happy family until disaster strikes. The disaster strikes when Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell leave on a business trip and fortunately Mr. Maxwell forgets his brief case.

After the Maxwells leave Wilbur had a brilliant idea of how to get his bicycle.

His idea was to make their beautiful home into a Boarding House. When the Maxwells returned home early in the morning, they found strange guests had entered their home. The trouble started when Wilbur rented one of the rooms to bank robbers.

After all the problems like lights blinking on and off because of shorts in extension cords, stage lights not working, pictures falling, telephones and doorbells ringing when they were not supposed to, the play turned out to be a great success thanks to the help of Mrs. Nancy Turney, director, and Cyndy Graham, student director.

Pam Trickett and Kathy Sincell look over the problem.

Roslyn Rodeheaver, Doug Green, Jack Riley, and Pam Trickett explain to Tim Filemyr about "Maxwell's Boarding House."

Rodney Durst and Dwayne Boyce plan how to catch the bank robbers.

Jr. Class Gives a Great Play!

Clara Shockley tells Ronni Domenick about Mr. Maxwell being in jail.

Judy Custer tells Kevin Hahn to knock Mr. Maxwell's block off.

Judy Custer convinces Kevin Hahn to hold his breath and count to two-hundred-fifty.

Roslyn Rodeheaver tries to find a place for "the stolen money."

Judy Custer finds time to blow a bubble during all the hard practices.

Kathy Sincell finds someone rather strange.

Clara Shockley talks to Bernadine over the telephone.

The Class of '76" Presents:

1. Please don't jump Dale Sue," says Dale Rhodes. 2 Who are you talking to Kevin?

3. "I told you not to call me at the office dear," says "Foot." 4. "I really didn't think that was funny," says "Juice." 5. Another obscene phone call Lewis? 6. The Senior Class clowns being their usual selves.

'We May Never Pass This Way Again'

Music by Sound Affair gave a romantic and unforgettable background as Jeanine Lucas, escorted by Bill Reams, was crowned the 1976 Prom Queen. With a smile and a crooked crown Jeanine sparkled, highlighting the evening.

Preceding the crowning, dinner was served at the McHenry House at 6:30. Several awards were presented during the dinner segment of the evening. Among those were — Tim DeWitt who was awarded a scholarship to Vindex University for being the outstanding senior. Flirter of the Year Award went to Vicki Graham while the "Big Tee" cup was given to Mark Proudfoot for his ability to drink so many "Sprites" during his lunch period.

Following the dinner, the dance began at 9:00. At 10:15, Jeanine Lucas was crowned queen. Princesses were — Michelle Baker, escorted by Jim Liven-good, Rossy Santana, escorted by Frank Kight, Sheila Stottlemeyer, escorted by Chris Cullen, and Dawn Tichnell, escorted by Ed Panther.

Throughout the evening memories were placed in the minds of everyone that attended. Seniors were caught off-in-space thinking how they must gather all their courage and sail their ships out on the open sea. As each and everyone realized "I may never pass this way again."

1. Renee Sheally and Kevin Savage take a break for a glass of punch. 2. "Whatever's in here it sure is good," says Joyce Cosgray. 3. Scott Heginbotham and Dale Sue Reams sit this dance out. 4. Joy McCain, flower girl and Brenden Updyke, crown bearer. 5. Queen, Jeanine Lucas and Escort Bill Reams seem to enjoy the queen's dance. 6. Jim Livengood, Michelle Baker, Frank Kight, Rossy Santana. 7. Sheila Stottlemeyer, Chris Cullen, Dawn Tichnell, Ed Panther, watch with excitement while the queen is crowned.

1. Denny Murray tries hard to hit Robin DeBerry's glass. 2. Bill Reams takes a look at Jeanine Lucas's crown to make sure it is straight. 3. Tim DeWitt isn't too sure how he is doing dancing the Bump. 4. Mr. Pratt enjoys a slow dance with his wife. 5. Susie Shaffer seems to be quite upset with Steve Ritchie for not getting her some punch. 6. Kevin Liller admires his broken record award while breaking the blusher's record. 7. Robin Camp, chairman of the court committee, prefers to kneel.

Twelve years. For some it has been a prison. Others feel it has been days of good times, but to everyone it has been an experience.

Our senior year. The time many begin losing interest, direction, and ideals. But as each senior graduated we began to think of our independence, new faces, and challenges which will shape our tomorrows. We have wondered at numerous social and historical events. Confusion, instability, and corruption. But more fondly we will remember June 6, 1976. Now let us work to achieve dreams, contemplate opportunities, and begin — "A generation true to itself."

RAMS WIN PLACE SECOND

1. Kevin Liller (40) makes another two points to add to his all-time-leading scores recorded at Southern High. 4. Ken Niner looks up in amazement as another of his shots goes in.

2. Ed Panther (24) dribbles his way past his Allegany opponent. 3. "Keep your eye on the ball, Ace," says Ed Panther. 5. Larry Miller (31) attempts two points against Valley. 6. Ted Raynovich (21) skys for two in the tournament against Francis Scott Key. 7.

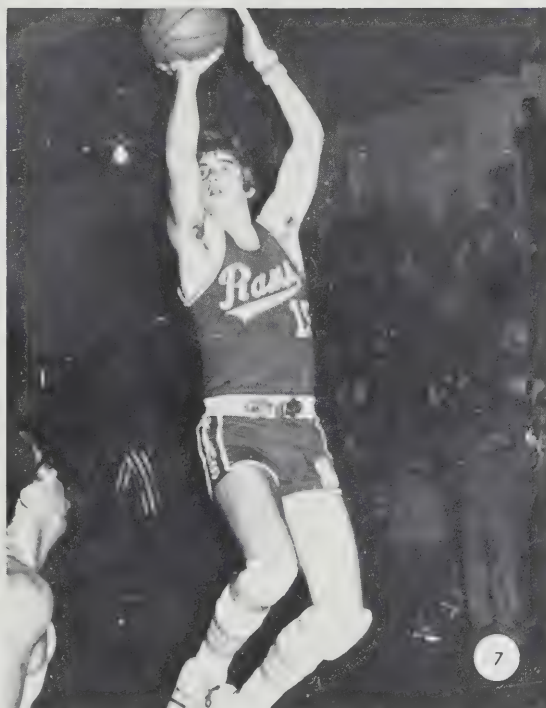

DISTRICT STATE TITLE

8. Ken Niner displays his great jump-shot ability. 11. Kevin Liller outmaneuvers his Bruce opponent to add two more points to the Ram score.

Steve Liller shows that "mental preparation" really pays off. 9. Ed Panther proves to Southern fans that his basketball talent goes beyond ball handling. 10. Eric Wotring showing off for Southern fans during warm ups.

VARSITY LOSES 8 SENIORS

Excellent coaching by Mr. Don Stemple, an unusually talented team, and a lot of time and hard work resulted in a District 1 Class B Championship and a State Runner-Up Class B championship for the Southern Rams.

Enthusiasm among Southern fans also played a big part in the success of the Rams. Southern had the largest crowd of supporters of any other team at the College Park games with around 600 to 700 in attendance during the two games.

For a few of the starting five, the season was filled with memories, some good, some bad.

In the last home game of the season, the screaming fans cheered Kevin Liller on as he sunk 38 points to lead all scorers at Southern. He finished with 1209 career points.

Kevin also gave a great performance at College Park as he scored 26 points in the second half of the North Carolina game.

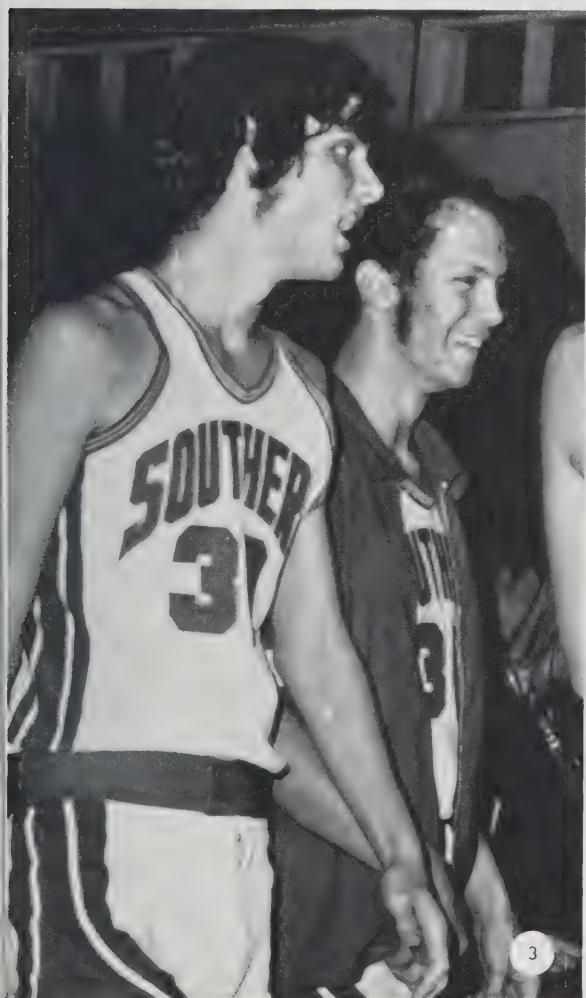

Ed Panther tied a previous College Park record with eight assists.

In an effort to get a lead in the Bruce game, Allen (Ace) Lewis took a dive to intercept a pass and hit the floor hard and separated his shoulder. He was out for the rest of the season.

But for Southern fans and the Southern Ram "Superstars," 1976 will be a "Season to Remember."

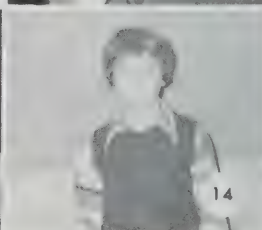

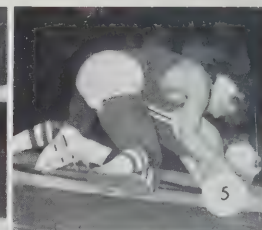

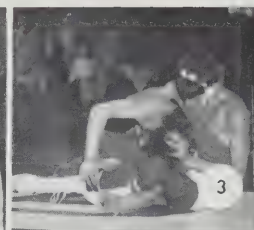

1. "I can outshoot this guy with one hand," says Kevin Liller (40). 2. "Ace" buckets two points against Fort Hill (44). 3. "And you think you've got muscles," says Ed Panther (24). 4. "It's up there Allen and Kevin," says Ed.

1. Eric Wotring being "cool" at a pep assembly. 2. "Juice" Raynovich bursts thru the hoop to the tune of "Superstar." 3. "Steg" tells Larry a joke before the game. 4. Tom Steger and Larry Miller seem excited about the game. But what is Eric looking at? 5. "Now where did that ball go?" says Mark.

WRESTLERS SNAP 3 YEAR LOSING STREAK

This year's wrestling season was not very great, going by the record only. Coached by Mr. Wilbur Hinebaugh, the team had many very good wrestlers. The team itself was quite inexperienced and young. This is not an excuse and it is something all good teams go through.

We started out good at every match and the wrestlers were having a lot of individual wins. The trouble was that the team did not put their wins together in the same match, and again the inexperience kept our wins to decisions and our losses to pins.

A few losses put the team morale down and this led to the team getting further away from a win. The coach pulled the team together and we were wanting and getting closer to a win each time.

Then the day for the home match against the Sentinels of Fort Hill rolled around to the front of the calendar. The team knew they wanted to win this match and realized they could do it if they put out their best effort and got it together.

We won this match 33 to 21 and were proud of it. All the wrestlers wrestled as a team and won it as a team by putting their talent and all their coaching together.

We then placed a very close third position in the Potomac Valley Conference tournaments and we had one PVC champ, Dennis Murray.

Our record was not great but a lot of these "team" wrestlers will be back as a powerhouse next year and with our good coach we have to have a winning season. Ken Stinson, team captain.

Cheerleaders — Spirit on the Loose!

A smile, spirit, and the ability to yell louder than Tarzan are all the qualities of a cheerleader. One that can smile when her team is 20 points behind or when doing a double stunt she falls and embarrassingly tumbles to the floor. A cheerleader is one who looks at things with a positive attitude. Never does a cheerleader say that her team is going to lose.

A cheerleader is dedicated to one goal and that goal is to make the players want to win. Many ask how can she do that. She stays after school till 8:00 p.m. making signs and covering the hoop for next day's pep assembly, going home after school long enough to change her uniform and gobble down her supper so that she can be back at school in time to decorate the player's bus with candy, signs, and a 18" by 24" cake that is usually sitting on the back seat.

A cheerleader is one who must accept defeat with a smile realizing her team did their best. But some times her emotions take hold and tears begin to fall.

For all the work, pulled muscles, rain soaked hair, and sore throats a cheerleader is rewarded with the most memorial gift. A gift that will stand out from all others. A gift that is spelled A — V — I — C — T — O — R — Y !

Va. Cheerleaders Have Got the Spirit

If not in the coach's office discussing pep assemblies or in Mrs. Donna Durst's room, interrupting class to borrow scissors, paint, tape, etc. the Va. Cheerleaders could be found running the halls, hiding the spirit stick, hanging signs, or trying to get some poor innocent student to buy a 15¢ sucker for a quarter.

Throughout the year the Va. Cheerleaders have learned and experienced things which they will never forget such as bleachers full of fans that continuously yelled the cheers and 2 teams which gave them a 26-11 record to cheer about.

Remembering the 24 by 18 inch cakes given, the team to cheerleader talk after practice one night, and the journey to College Park with 12 of the greatest guys ever, the Va. Cheerleaders can say, "We've got the SPIRIT."

GIRLS BASKETBALL

Pam Terrant shoots again!

The Southern Girls' Basketball team started their season with a spark. On their home court they upset Bruce for their first victory. Throughout the season spirits remained high, yet they couldn't quite put it all together. This was the first year the girls participated in the State Class B Tournaments. They were defeated by Allegany in the first round by sixteen points. But this is only the beginning.

As this year draws to a close and the class of '76 moves on to a higher step in life, you will fulfill the role of the Senior Class of Southern High School. It will be a great year for you — maybe the happiest of your school career. It is so important, however, that above many things you first accept and fulfill the responsibilities that will face you as seniors — as people attempting to let go of so much past and anticipating so much future. So many times we become so involved with the future — hoping so much for the next day, next week, next year — that we fail to live the present. Appreciate what you have now and realize that in no time, you will be in our place, facing the same decisions, experiencing the same thoughts that we are today.

WHEN THINGS

It starts in the spring of your sixth grade year. The big trip. Up the hill. Southern. It even sounds big.

Your first trip through the crowded halls is like wandering through the deep jungle without a guide. That is just the beginning.

Your first day in seventh grade is the real thrill. First the cafeteria, then homeroom — usually all the way at the other end of the building.

Everyone seems to know where they are going but you. This is high school, huh??

As seventh graders, we searched for classes minutes after senior bell had rung and violated traditions without even knowing it.

Eighth grade was nice. Now you can look down at those seventh graders but there is still that one giant figure blocking out the sun. The Senior!

In eighth grade you get to do things like be in the junior band and have phys. ed. three days a week instead of two. You look forward to ninth grade with anxious thoughts.

Ninth grade is the senior year of junior high. Seventh grade looks like a hundred years behind you.

Now you are starting to get a feel for the "Big School." Nothing is as big as it used to look. Except Seniors!

Tenth grade starts everything again except you get out of classes five minutes later which you think is a rip.

You make the step without much difficulty but it seems strange why sophomores aren't as big as they looked three years ago.

By now you know what can and can not be done in school — like giving Mr. Everly a hard time. That is a senior privilege. Anyone else gets the third degree.

As a junior you feel a little more secure. You are no longer looked down upon. Teachers start giving you a lot more freedoms. Electives and mini-courses.

Becoming a senior pays for all the embarrassment and anxious moments you spent as an underclassman. You gain the security you lacked and get the respect you worked for in your six years at SHS.

Graduation was the event you looked forward to with joy in anticipating your freedom, yet sadness in leaving friends and memories behind you.

SUE HALTERMAN REIGNS OVER WINTERFEST

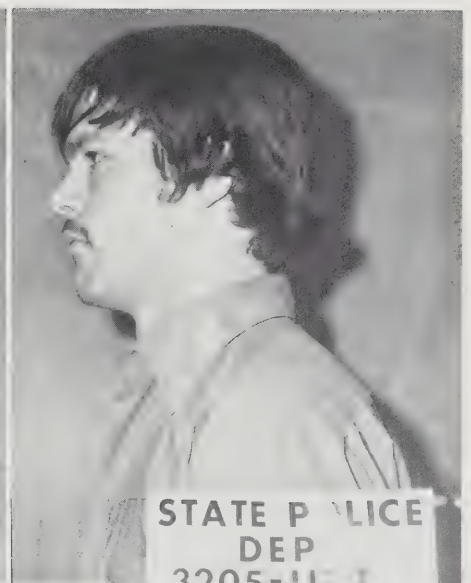

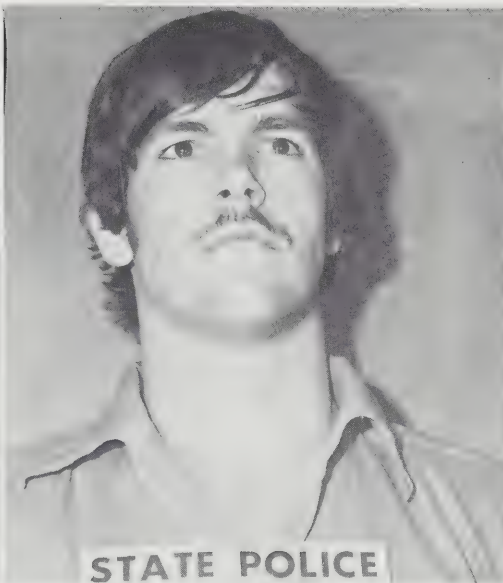

The 1976 Winterfest queen was crowned at eight-thirty p.m. on Feb. 27, at the Wisp, McHenry, Maryland. Three of the semi-finalists, including the Queen, were from Southern. Special guest to this year's Winterfest was the governor of Maryland, Marvin Mandel. Fourth runner-up was Brenda Wakefield. A freshman from Northern High School, she is interested in many sports including snow skiing, horseback riding and swimming. Her escort was Doug DeWitt, also from Northern. Third runner-up was Dale Sue Ream from Southern. She is a senior. Her escort was Mark Ashby, a 1974 graduate from Southern. Second runner-up was Judy Kahl, also from Southern, escorted by Mark Russell, a 1975 graduate from Northern. First runner-up was Jeanne Carson, a senior at Northern. The Queen, Sue Halterman, was escorted by Craig Hutson, a senior at Southern. She was chosen not only on appeal, but also personality and poise. Scholastic ability was also taken into account. Sue is an early graduate from Southern and is planning a career in Radiologic Technology. She is planning to attend school at the Polyclinic Hospital, Harrisburgh, Pa. She was one of eight chosen out of over one hundred applicants.

(from top to bottom) Judy Kahl, Brenda Wakefield, Dale Sue Ream, Jeanne Carson, 1975 Queen, Donna Nutter, Gov. Marvin Mandel, 1976 Winterfest Queen, Sue Halterman.

Wanted By Society

18-Year Old Adult Citizen

ALIASES: The Age of Majority, the 18-Year Old Vote,
"Those kids at the Bar," "The New Adults."

Dave Gallagher

Description:

Age: 18, born 1958
Height: tall enough
Weight: wide enough
Built: well
Hair: straight

Occupations: Distinguishing Marks:

Eyes: 20/20 clear brown
Complexion: rare, medium, or well-done
Race: Human
Nationality: U.S.A.

bartender, chicken-plucker, stock-boy, cashier, stock-boy.
Usually seen driving a late-model sports car, dressed well in the latest fashions or jeans, accompanied by the opposite sex.

Record:

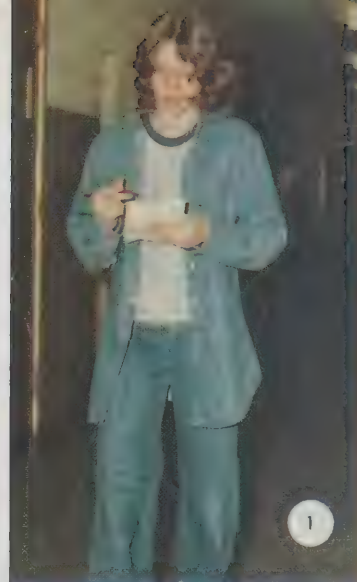

On 1 May, 1974, the Maryland Legislature decided that 18-year olds were responsible and ready for full citizenship in our society. On that day, the 18-year old suddenly was given full rights and responsibilities of an adult

Caution:

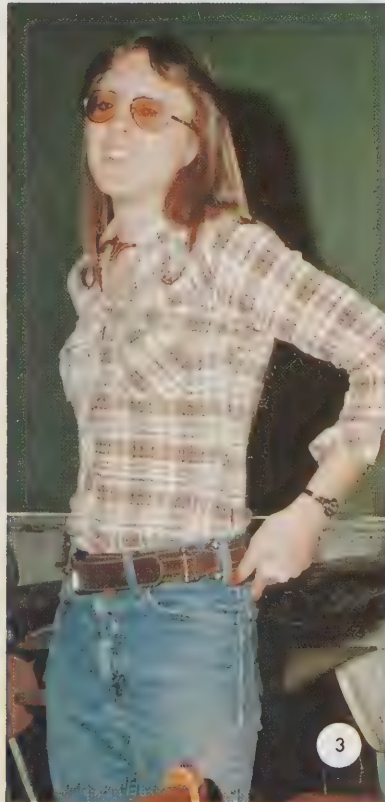

These persons sometimes act as if they really rate. This can be dangerous to one's ego. Known to be armed with father's gas credit card and mother's Master Charge card and a high school diploma.

Bonjour Bozos!
D.S.

The purpose of education is to prepare young people of our nation for their future responsibilities. As teachers, our purpose is to show them what their responsibilities are.

W.H.

Ms. Ducey Snyder

Mr. William Hogan

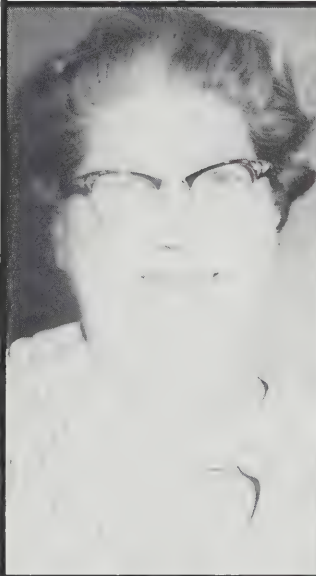

Life is valuable in itself because it is God-given, but each of us, by what we accomplish with the abilities we have and we develop, will determine the quality of that life. Therein will be our happiness or lack of it.

Mrs. Eleanor Frickey

Mrs. Helen Poland

Mr. David Beard

Vocational

What goes up, must come down.

D.C.U.

Caution — Be sure to engage brain before putting mouth in gear!

T.S.

Mr. D. C. Updyke

Mr. Tim Siljander

Double-check your work.

J.F.

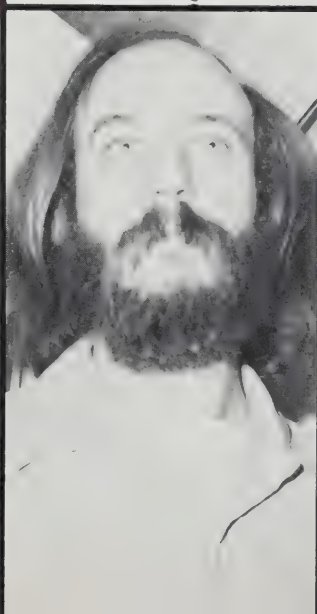

"———"

R.Q.

Mr. John Fitzwater

Mr. Robert Quick

I don't want excuses, I just want results.

R.B.

You get too soon old,
And too late smart!
(Pa. Dutch Saying)
S.M.S.

Mr. Richard Bishoff

Mrs. Sarah Smith

Keep an open mind, And a willing hand.

W.F.

He that walketh with wise men shall be wise; but a companion of fools shall be destroyed.

(Proverbs 14:20)
E.U.

Mr. William Freyman

Mr. Ernest Umbel

Physical Education

Lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor dust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal: For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

(St. Matt. 6:19-21)

A.B.

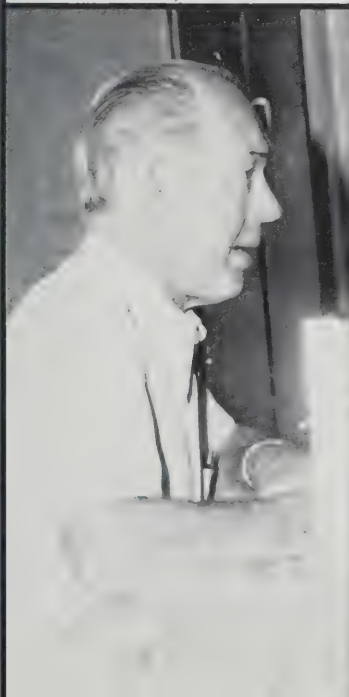

Silence is golden.

L.G.

Mr. Arch Baker

Mr. Larry Groer

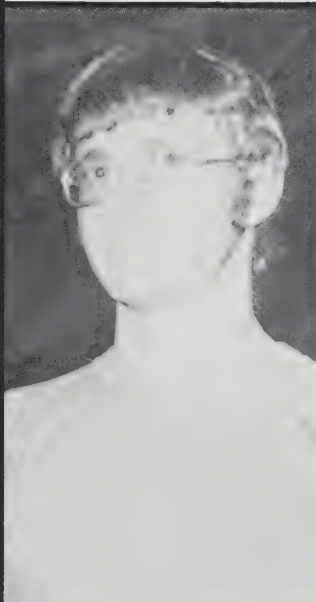

A special salute to this year's seniors. Since becoming a teacher at Southern, I have never dealt with a group of young people that have given me more thrills or satisfaction. Thanks for College Park.

D.S.

Have fun this summer because you're going to work your butts off in the fall.

J.M.

Mr. Donald Stemple

Mr. Jim Miers

Jog your mile each week, as you get older you'll stay slim and sleek.

Mrs. R.

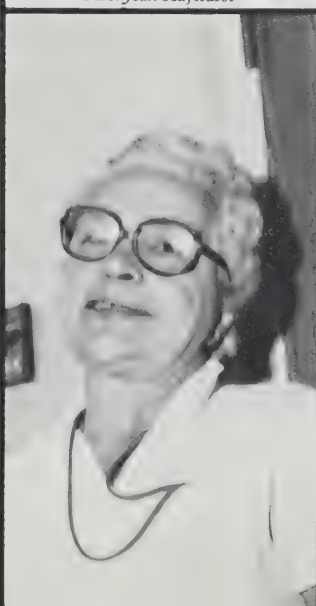

Exercise is enjoyable, fun, and refreshing, too.

J.H.

Mrs. Helen Rostosky

Mrs. Jean Hayhurst

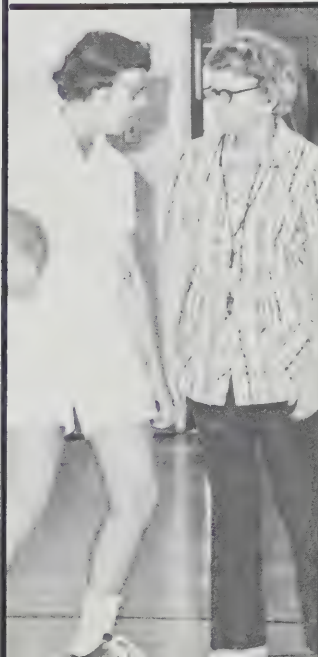

Winning's not everything, it's the only thing.

Captain

Mr. Tom Kuhn

Mrs. R. and Mrs. Dorothy Frame
